“ PETITION TO QUASH SUMMONS “

Comes now the petitioner, Kenneth Tennyson< PRO-SE, pursuant to F,R,C,P, Rule 12,11,4, and I,R,C, 7609(b)(2)(B). To inform the court that this petitioner invokes his privilege against adverse spousal testimony. Petitioner cites: Ryan V, Commissioner (1977 CA.7) 568 F,2d531, 78-1 “ Essential reason to invoke privilege against adverse spousal testimony is to foster family peace and harmony, for benefit of husband, wife, children, and public; adverse spousal privilege should be limited to instances in which it makes most sense, where spouse who is neither victim nor participant observes evidence of other spouses crime.

For these reasons the petitioner respectfully prays for an order to quash summons issued by respondent for the appearance of petitioner in matter now at issue and for such other and further relief as the court deems just and equitable.
